this book questions the sociocultural dimensions of remembering it offers an overview of the history and theory of memory studies through the lens of sociology political science anthropology psychology literature art and media studies documenting current international and interdisciplinary memory research in an unprecedented way this unique and brilliant book is a history of human knowledge before the invention of printing a trained memory was of vital importance based on a technique of impressing places and images on the mind the ancient greeks created an elaborate memory system which in turn was inherited by the romans and passed into the european tradition to be revived in occult form during the renaissance frances yates sheds light on dante s divine comedy the form of the shakespearean theatre and the history of ancient architecture the art of memory is an invaluable contribution to aesthetics and psychology and to the history of philosophy of science and of literature memory matters it matters because memory brings the past into the present and opens it up to the future but it also matters literally because memory is mediated materially materiality is the stuff of memory meaningful objects that we love or hate function not only as aide mémoire but are integral to memory drawing on previous scholarship on the interrelation of memory and materiality this book applies recent theories of new materialism to explore the material dimension of memory in art and popular culture the book s underlying premise is twofold on the one hand memory is performed mediated and stored through the material world that surrounds us on the other hand inanimate objects and things also have agency on their own which affects practices of memory as well as forgetting chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable open access pdf under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives 3 0 license s3 us west 2 amazonaws com tandfbis rt files docs open access chapters 9781138203235 oachapter1 pdf chapter 4 of this book is freely available as a downloadable open access pdf under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives 3 0 license s3 us west 2 amazonaws com tandfbis rt files docs open access chapters 9781138203235 oachapter4 pdf chapter 5 of this book is freely available as a downloadable open access pdf under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives 3 0 license s3 us west 2 amazonaws com tandfbis examines the phenomenon of remembering covering what memories are how they are stored in the brain their importance in human history and more today we are used to clear divisions between science and the arts but early modern thinkers had no such distinctions with knowledge being a truly interdisciplinary pursuit each chapter of this collection presents a case study from a different area of knowledge individuals seek ways to repress the sense of violence within themselves and often resort to medial channels the hunger of the individual for violence is a trigger for the generation of violent content by media owners of political power owners of religious power etc however this content is produced considering the individual s sensitivities thus violence is aestheticized aesthetics of violence appear in different fields and in different forms in order to analyze it an interdisciplinary perspective is required the handbook of research on aestheticization of violence horror and power brings together two different concepts that seem incompatible aesthetics and violence and focuses on the basic motives of aestheticizing and presenting violence in different fields and genres as well as the role of audience reception seeking to reveal this togetherness with different methods research analyses and findings in different fields that include media urban design art and mythology the book covers the aestheticization of fear power and violence in such mediums as public relations digital games and performance art this comprehensive reference is an ideal source for researchers academicians and students working in the fields of media culture art politics architecture aesthetics history cultural anthropology and more
