throughout the past three decades Nadav Na'aman has repeatedly proved that he is one of the most careful historians of ancient Canaan and Israel with broad expertise he has brought together archaeology text and the inscriptional material from all of the ancient Near East to bear on the history of ancient Israel and the land of Canaan during the second and first millenniums B.C.E. Many of his studies have been published as journal articles or notes and yet together they constitute one of the most important bodies of literature on the subject in recent years particularly because of the careful attention to methodology that Na'aman always has brought to his work collected here are 23 essays on the Hurrians the Egyptians and their presence in the Levant during the second millennium B.C.E. Canaanite city states the Amarna letters and the neighbors of Canaan in the north such as Alalakh and Damascus the essays range over such topics as scribes and language archaeology cultural influences and the interrelations of the great powers during this period the volume includes indexes of ancient personal names place names and biblical references

As primitive civilization developed society has established cornerstones in our thought and reasoning things we are told repeatedly as fact from birth and are thus believed instinctively many of these cornerstones now date back many millennia such as the Bible the Ber series takes a candid look into the Bible to explore how the theological beliefs within institutional religion have affected society in diabolical ways these books also challenge the church's theological cornerstones to prove that they deviate from the Bible and truly have an obscured understanding of the divine thus the goal is to bring an overdue debate to organized religion the hope is to remove the barriers that deny humanity the evolution of our species no topic is out of bounds a person could listen to ten lifetimes of sermons and never get even a fraction of the candor of these books love them or hate them you will be unable to put them down and you will never see the world or the divine the same way again

The second intermediate period designates the 250 year period 1800-1550 B.C. which separates the two glorious periods of the Middle Kingdom and the New Kingdom during the 19th century B.C. an invasion by Canaanite tribes into the Delta took place around 1800 B.C. these people proclaimed their own king and the Delta thus became independent from the rest of Egypt Egypt remained split between the Canaanitic rulers in north and the native Egyptian kings in the south for the rest of the second intermediate period the division of Egypt brought about an economic decline and the entire period is characterized by a lack of royal monuments this circumstance has greatly hampered any attempts to establish a chronology of the period and as a consequence it has been very difficult to date many sources which are relevant for the social and political situation of the period the second intermediate period has therefore remained one of the most obscure periods of Egypt's ancient history the dissertation is a new attempt to establish a chronology for the second intermediate period and define the different kingdoms their territories and political relations the study consists of four main chapters three appendixes a catalogue of sources bibliography and indices included is a catalogue of all the historical sources about 1500 known to certify the names of the Egyptian kings of the second intermediate period each source is described in terms of type origin and present location followed by bibliographical references
