this book is a collection of documents mostly translated from the german that covers the entire third reich from the beginnings of national socialism in Munich in 1919 through the rise of Nazism in the 1930s and ultimately the defeat of the Third Reich it is wide ranging covering the core doctrine of anti-Semitism education German youth women and marriage science health the church literature visual arts music the body industry sports and the resistance

Few topics in modern history draw the attention that the Holocaust does the Shoah has become synonymous with unspeakable atrocity and unbearable suffering yet it has also been used to teach tolerance empathy resistance and hope understanding and teaching the Holocaust provides a starting point for teachers in many disciplines to illuminate this crucial event in world history for students using a vast array of source materials from literature and film to survivor testimonies and interviews the contributors demonstrate how to guide students through these sensitive and painful subjects within their specific historical and social contexts each chapter provides pedagogical case studies for teaching content such as antisemitism resistance and rescue and the postwar lives of displaced persons it will transform how students learn about the Holocaust and the circumstances surrounding it

Time is the backdrop of historical inquiry yet it is much more than a featureless setting for events different temporalities interact dynamically sometimes they coexist tensely sometimes they clash violently in this innovative volume editors Dan Edelstein Stefanos Geroulanos and Natasha Wheatley challenge how we interpret history by focusing on the nexus of two concepts power and time as they manifest in a wide variety of case studies analyzing history culture politics technology law art and science this engaging book shows how power is constituted through the shaping of temporal regimes in historically specific ways power and time includes seventeen essays on human rights sovereignty Islamic European Chinese and Indian history slavery capitalism revolution the Supreme Court the Anthropocene and even the Manson family power and time will be an agenda setting volume highlighting the work of some of the world's most respected and original contemporary historians and posing fundamental questions for the craft of history illustrates how theatre's engagement with politics changes over time
